Check the website for branch events.
How to Register

Registering for programs just got easier! SPL’s website has a new event calendar, and it’s now simpler than ever to find and sign up for programs. Just follow the steps below:

1. Click on Events on the SPL homepage.
2. Find a program using the calendar view, the search box, or the drop-down menus at the top of the calendar.
3. Programs with a person icon and + sign require registration. In the example to the right, Paint Night at the Library requires registration, while the other two programs are drop-in.
4. Once you find the program you’re looking for, click on it. This brings up a box with basic information. To register for the program, click VIEW MORE.
5. You will be taken to a page where you can enter your information. Once finished, click Submit.
6. After your program registration is completed, a message will be displayed telling you that your registration was successful.

If you have any questions, please email askus@saskatoonlibrary.ca.
All of our programs are free.

That’s a fact, not fiction!
saskatoonlibrary.ca

All programs are drop-in unless indicated that registration is required.

Registered Programs

- In person
  Visit your local branch.

- By phone
  Call the number listed under the program name.

- Online
  Find the program on our events page and follow the instructions on the previous page.

All library programs are subject to change without notice. In the event that a registered program has been cancelled, we will attempt to notify you about the cancellation.

Drop-in Programs

Free tickets can be picked up 30 minutes before the program start time, as space is limited. For groups and daycares, please call ahead.

Notes to Parents & Caregivers

Parents and caregivers of kids under 11 are required to remain in the library.

Programs are designed with specific ages and developmental stages in mind. Please bring kids to programs that correspond to their ages.

Signs of Spring

This 1940 photo shows an animal technician at the University of Saskatchewan handling lambs during the spring lambing season. Sheep first arrived on the university farm in 1911, and the university flock grazed on and around the campus for many years.

For more historic photos and information, stop by SPL’s Local History Room or visit saskatoonlibrary.ca/localhistory.

Caregivers of kids under 11 are expected to remain in the library during programs.
Starting around late May & throughout the summer, you can visit your library to sign up. It’s free!

You’ll get a notebook and stickers, and there are two ways to participate. You can either count the number of books you read or count the number of days you read at least 15 minutes each day.

Keep track of the books or dates that you read, then come back to the library to enter the contest. For every five books or five days you read, you get to enter to win a prize at the end of the summer. You’ll also get a small prize for every five books or five days you read (up to a maximum of four prizes).

If you come back before Jul 15, you’ll be entered for a chance to win the early bird prize of a family swim pass.

FICTION
From the author of the internationally acclaimed The Flamethrowers comes an intense and compelling novel about a life gone sideways in America.

FICTION
Set in London in 1945, Ondaatje’s latest release centres around violence, love, intrigue and desire in a city still reeling from years of war.

NON-FICTION
This book takes an in-depth look at White House chiefs of staff whose actions – and inactions – have helped shape the face of America.

NON-FICTION
Written by a former FBI director, this book shares some of Comey’s many experiences from his decades inside the American government.

GRAPHIC NOVEL
Echo Dejardin is a 13-year-old Métis girl adjusting to a new home and school when she discovers she has the ability to transport herself between time and place.

TEEN
Dene Cho is 12, angry and confused and has one burning question: “Why can’t we speak our language?” In this book, Van Camp explores many of the frustrations he felt as a young boy.

CHILDREN
This book pays a beautiful, lyrical tribute to loving who you are, respecting others and being kind to those around you.

CHILDREN
The fourth and final book in this series features the Wollstonecraft detectives taking on a mysterious case by royal request.
NON-FICTION
We’re living longer, but are we living better? That’s one question posed in this book, which offers new understandings of our bodies, ourselves and our place in the universe.

FICTION
After an 11-year-old boy’s corpse is found in a park, the evidence immediately points to a popular local man. The truth, however, is shocking beyond belief.

CD / JACK WHITE
The American rock icon is back with his first solo album in nearly four years, Boarding House Reach. The album features singles such as “Connected by Love,” “Respect Commander” and “Corporation.”

CD / JANNE ARDEN
Recorded at Vancouver’s Warehouse with legendary producer Bob Helm, Arden’s latest release is a defiant statement by the award-winning singer/songwriter.

CD / MOBY
The electronica musician’s 15th studio album, Everything Was Beautiful, and Nothing Hurt, is a melancholy production that features a long list of guest vocalists.

What if I need more time?

With your library card you can renew most items twice:
- in person
- by phone at 1.855.980.7457
- by phoning any location
- online through My SPL at saskatoonlibrary.ca

A few important points about renewals:
- if an item has been requested by someone else, it cannot be renewed
- overdue items can still be renewed and this will stop further late charges
- items cannot be renewed if you have more than $10 owing in late charges
- to renew a film for public and educational screenings, call 306.975.7580

Where do I return material?

You can return material to any public library in Saskatchewan.
Films for public and educational screenings must be returned to Fine Arts at Frances Morrison Central Library.

What if my public library doesn’t have the material I want, but another one does?

You can request most materials to be delivered to your preferred public library location from one easy-to-use, province-wide online catalogue.

Please remember to check your due dates carefully as loan periods vary on different items.
