Public Library Mourns Cliff Wright

Saskatoon Public Library (SPL) mourns the death of former mayor Clifford Emerson Wright, who passed away early this morning.

“Mr. Wright was an outstanding citizen and a strong supporter of public libraries and he will be missed. His mayoral support made it possible for Saskatoon Public Library to accomplish the feat of opening two large suburban branches in one year, one of which bears his name. We send our condolences to his wife Betty and their family,” said Zenon Zuzak, Director of Libraries.

Cliff Wright Branch, which opened in 1989 in the Lakewood Civic Centre, remains one of SPL’s busiest branches.
